

WHEN WATER MEETS

An essential element of life, water is a seamless component characterised by purity and naturalness. This extraordinary compound has long provided inspiration for the Boffi | De Padova Group and its creative team. In 1999, Boffi and Piero Lissoni presented the “When Water Meets” project on the occasion of the launch of the brand’s first bath collection. The concept revolved around a series of floating islands where bathroom elements were envisioned as striking standalone pieces but also products that could live in harmony within a larger interior space. Twenty years on, for the 2019 edition of the Salone del Mobile, water is once again the unifying theme to propose a complex set of architectural solutions for the home. The “When Water Meets” concept has been revisited and presented at S. Project, a pavilion at Salone del Mobile 2019 dedicated to offering a 360-degree overview of interior architecture together with decorative and technical interior solutions. This project follows a precise, architectural approach using an interplay of solids and voids marked by pools of water to form an imaginary chessboard. Bonded together by water, the concept emphasises the seamless nature of the interior elements from the Boffi | De Padova Group and their ability to be rearranged in innumerable ways to create spaces defined by an understated elegance. From the customisable kitchens, bathrooms and wardrobe systems from Boffi and home furnishings from De Padova to the adaptable shelving from MA/U Studio and door systems from ADL, the “When Water Meets” project demonstrates how these elements may be repositioned like pieces on a board to form engaging interior spaces. On the surface, the appearance is uniform yet underneath there are separate creative currents, with each brand committed to creating long-lasting designs crafted by skilled Italian artisans. The result is a sophisticated range of furniture defined by a readily identifiable style that communicates a timeless aesthetic. One network, one design philosophy.

INT ERIO RS

Key elements from the De Padova furniture collection come together to create a sophisticated contemporary space suitable for moments of contemplation and relaxation. Iconic pieces, including modular shelving that may be configured to accommodate a wide variety of interiors, frame a living room where quiet details and quality materials stand out. The assortment of assembled pieces and lighting project an environment that eschews trends in favour of timeless principles revolving around Made-in-Italy craftsmanship.

Sharp architectural lines, a focus on essential elements and a muted colour palette unite to form an elegant setting defined by understatement. Serene interiors in monochromatic hues are created with sophisticated furnishings that avoid ornamentation. Transparent glass imbues spaces with a clean contemporary style, while modular solutions such as the R.I.G. shelving system from MA/U Studio offer flexibility and clarity with pared-down structures that distil designs down to their essence.

Under a soft, natural light, emphasis is placed squarely on essential forms and details. Models project fluidity and an understated elegance via sleek, graceful lines. Weighty materials such as steel and stone become an afterthought as the design's focus stresses streamlined features that inject pieces with an incredible lightness.

ARCHITECTURE

Fundamental elements come to the fore in striking designs by Boffi for modular wardrobe systems for the home. Neutral colours place the focus on the harmonious horizontal and vertical lines that combine to form a striking geometric exhibit. Underlying elements and details are brought into the spotlight, including wardrobe doors in see-through glass. The meticulous aesthetics of each model delivers a clean, sophisticated appearance and gives a sense of expansive space.

Free-flowing movement is elegantly captured in serene compositions that focus on essential lines and steer clear of extraneous detailing. Bathroom fixtures are not considered as secondary elements, with counters and shelving in light-filled spaces projecting a relaxing and reflective ambience. The decor is set off by cool monochromatic hues inspired by the transparent nature of water.
